

NEWSLETTER

JUNE 2017

Ohio Field Signs Score Historic Points

Ohio Field has a new look. The historic field, home to Ohio State football prior to 'The Shoe' opening in 1922, is now a shrine to the legends that competed on it. Informational signage, photos and yard markers now line the turf after University Architect Bernie Costantino helped the project cross the goal line in spring 2017.

Take a Tour

Horujko Accepts Multiple Honors in June

Officer Alan Horujko and The Ohio State University Police Division received multiple honors in June. Officer Horujko was honored June 21 with resolutions by the Ohio Senate and Ohio House. In addition, he received the Steven Michael Smith Award for Valor June 7 from the Ohio Tactical Officers Association and the IACLEA Recognition for Valor on June 24. Officer Horujko credits his training for helping him respond to the campus attack on November 28, 2016.

Read More

A&P Puts Students FIRST

A&P helped send eight METRO Early College High School students and three of their Ohio State mentors to the FIRST National Advocacy Conference in Washington D.C. Attendees had the opportunity to meet with Senators and members of Congress to advocate for FIRST and STEM education. Read More.

Rieland Elected to NETA Board

WOSU Public Media general manager Tom Rieland was elected to the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA) board of directors. NETA supports public television stations across the country. Read More.

A Picture's Worth a Thousand Words

Check out what else made news around Administration and Planning this month!

- DPS' Corwin Kuhn Retires
- Pretty Day to Pave
- Sniffing for Safety at Buckeye Country Superfest
- A&P Shows its Pride
- Sam Hendren Signing Off
- OSUPD Recruits Taking Part in CPD Torch Run
- Dorne Trades Fore for One

View the Slideshow

A&People – Jackie Shafer

Jackie Shafer may work behind the scenes, but she stepped in front of the camera for this month's A&People. Shafer has served as a producer/editor for WOSU Public media since 2013, helping to launch its weekly magazine show Broad & High – a feature show that focuses on stories of arts and culture around Central Ohio.

Go Behind the Scenes

FOD Summerfest 2017

FOD held its annual Summerfest on June 14 for its staff and family members at Fred Beekman Park. The event had several activities that included cornhole, bingo, giant jenga, giant bowling and caricature artists. There was also volleyball, basketball and home run derby competitions. View Photo Gallery.

Gayley Gains Health Outside the Gym

PARE's Rebekah Gayley is stepping outside her comfort zone to participate in the Ross Heart Hospital Tri-Fit Challenge on July 16, where she will handle the 22.75-mile bike ride. Read More.

In Case You Missed It

6/23/2017: Ohio State 2.0: Embarking on a decade of massive change

6/22/2017: Weinland Park finally turning the corner

6/21/2017: Sammy Edwards is interning this summer with the Ohio State Police Department

6/15/2017: WOSU Public Media and the Center of Science and Industry \(COSI\) Unveil New Exhibit for Children

6/12/2017: Trustees Approve Updated Plans for Mirror Lake