

DICE

Diversity, Intercultural, and Community Engagement

Diversity, Intercultural, and Community Engagement (DICE) is a certificate-earning program that originated in the Student Life Multicultural Center. Focused on diversity, social justice, service, and leadership, DICE has been adopted and tailored to provide Administration and Planning staff growth opportunities. Employees will gain valuable leadership and diversity skills to prepare them for their future. DICE provides diversity training through experiential learning and serves as a unique way of supporting student identity and interpersonal development.

Benefits

Complete Activities

Complete five DICE-approved activities and the reflection survey throughout the year,* with at least one in each of the following categories: Education, Service, Reflection. Some activities may be completed on campus during work time, with supervisory approval, such as attending a Matinees that Matter event at the Wexner Medical Center or a Multicultural Center event such as a Taste of OSU. Others may need to be completed on your own time off campus and may be something you were already planning to attend, like the Columbus Italian or Asian Festival.

* The current session is July 2017 - July 2018.
